

If I remove calves from my farm and raise them conventionally for 1 year, bring them back and raise them organically for 1 year, can I sell the milk as organic?

No. Removing livestock from an organic operation removes its organic status permanently—and no products from that animal may be sold, labeled, or represented as organic. (Section 205.236(b)(1)).

e-CFR